Of Me And My Work

By Dr. J Chiappalone My Motto...Take It Or Leave It 4-25-14

In 1985, I commenced the Work for which I had re-incarnated on Earth for the last time. It was to be the last time for I knew once I had finished my Work in this lifetime there would be no more incarnations on Earth for Earth would no longer exist!

I have been on Earth numerous times before, always doing the same Work basically, which involved, as it does in this incarnation, awakening those who deserve to be awakened, and supplying Energy to those who were and are being suffocated and drained by the Evil System. Simultaneously, my Consciousness has manifested in other planets, Galaxies and Universes, as required.

In the many incarnations I have had on Earth, the body I used rarely died of old age. Being a frontline warrior, the body I used was subjected to all forms of torture and death. Some episodes of that cruelty have been made into false religions doctrines with which to trap beings even more stringently.

Even in this life I have had to escape numerous times from death-dealing accidents and attempted murder. All so-called accidents are set-ups, whether you want to believe that nor not. In Israel, in 1990, where I had gone for the funeral of a dear friend, and to lecture to many non-Zionist Jews, I escaped from death, by machine gun carrying fanatics, by miraculous means. They could not smash my hotel room door down quickly enough and had to flee as police sirens wailed. The hotel staff, witnessing the attempted murder had called the police. Why would assassins who did not know me at all want to kill me? It is the energy really. The Evil Energy directing them knew who I am and whom I represent.

I have, in numerous incarnations, revealed that we are in a War of Essences. In former incarnations I explained an Endtime would come. In this one I stated the Final Stage had been set for the resolution of this War which was between Good and Evil. I stated emphatically that the End would be within the lifetime of this body I am using.

The Problem of Evil would be resolved once and for all on this planet, as it has been resolved in so many other places around this cruel and untenable Universe, with the Final Victory going to the Good Essence, which is the “Light” of True Love and Justice. “I” have been involved in all those other areas of Correction.

Especially in this last incarnation, I have explained the why, when and how of it all.

I have explained how this Universe is the result of a Celestial Error that demanded, by its extremely corrupt nature, to be corrected. This Universe is a rogue state; it is an illicit creation by a disobedient, Evil Mind.

I have explained how it is to be corrected.

I explained that not all people are equal in spiritual terms and that only a minority would spiritually survive the coming Global Destruction to continue their Divine Evolution elsewhere. The others were to perish forever via a process I have called Spiritual Transmutation.

Btw, those who think there is no existence outside of the Physical State are morons and do not deserve to continue.

I have given details of how all people, animals, and other levels of consciousness have been trapped in a hypnotic state in the Illusion of the Virtual Reality created by the Evil Essence for that very purpose.

For those whom I have called Theomorphs, that is, those created by the Light and trapped here, it has been a very real and horrifying nightmare.

In this way of entrapment in this nightmare, the ones with the pure Divine Energy within could, and were, drained, against their wishes, of their precious energy which the Evil System used to sustain its illicit, but doomed, Universe. Thus, in this explanation, we have the concept of the Goyim, the fat cows to be milked by the Sons and Daughters of Darkness, who would use the energy for their nefarious activities which always involved lies, violence, rape, hypocrisy and murder.

This we, with true vision, have witnessed throughout the history of this planet.

In my books, I enumerated in great detail the factors of Programming, Pollution and Indoctrination which were used by Darkness to keep both Viables and Non-Viables somnambulant in this morphic and very destructive state of consciousness.

But my written and spoken words had and have a specific Energy with which to awaken one and all, and to tell them of the End!

I revealed a plan for this Earth, the Resolution of the Problem of Evil, which entailed the total demise of the planet within 50 years from my first announcing this Message in 1985.

The outer time limit for total destruction of the planet was set by me and my team as 2035.

With diligence and valour, under extreme conditions, victories in little energy battles have allowed the End to be now set at November, 2016.

I set this as the Final date just a few days ago. I will not explain how I arrive at the termination date. I will only say the date is totally my responsibility to set on this level.

This can only be an approximation of course, and it could vary a little either way.

We are in a War. You don't really expect either side to give out precise information, do you?

All sides in wars give out false information called propaganda.

But know this: that figure is as accurate for the End is as you will get.

Who dares to set the date?

The mechanism by which I receive all the information I have published is less important, for now, than the concept of accuracy of the information.

Does this body have the authority to put out this information and such dating of the Endtime? Well, seeing that I have done just that, put out accurate information, that is, obviously it has, especially when retrospectively none can argue with my past accuracy.

Thus, I consider this body, and the consciousness which dwells within it, do have the authority to do such a thing.

Back in 1985, to unawakened fools and unawakened Viables alike, I must have sounded like the craziest of the demented Fundamentalists who broadcast their venomous spiel to one and all.

For my efforts, I was called the vilest names imaginable.

Who cared then? Who cares now?

The minions and Archons of Darkness had done worse to me (the body I was using at the time) in past lives, but "I" am still here, ready to lift forevermore the Banner of Triumph over totally decimated Evil and to take the Viables Home.

SHOULD I BE TAKEN SERIOUSLY?

The information I have released is resonating more and more with the internal knowledge of many who have awakened somewhat and managed to contact their Inner Source, as I have explained would happen in my books.

Unlike in earlier days when I first gave out the information, sceptics can now actually examine my detailed publications and utterings and assess their accuracy or otherwise.

Let them look critically and carefully at what I have forecast.

Have I been correct or not?

On that basis they can make an informed opinion of whether I am on the ball or not.

With due humbleness, I think you will find my “form” has been excellent and I have given a very precise account of the developments to take place on Earth since 1985.

This can be now easily verified by reviewing my track record.

I stated in 1985 that all need to awaken to the Illusion of the Virtual Reality in which we live, and I stated that the Pillars of this Virtual Reality will tumble. Those pillars are been Science, Religion and the perverted History of this planet.

Apart from the mass awakening, I stated that there would be a complete Fracturing of all Systems in this Evil Empire, and an unprecedented Fragmentation in all facets of existence on this planet in preparation for its extermination.

And I did not hesitate in the slightest to state that Terminal Madness of the Endtime would engulf ‘Humanity” and all the other levels of consciousness on this level, of which we are aware, simply because the controlling mechanisms keeping robotic minds in check were being dismantled.

Look around you and tell me, if you dare, that Madness is not ubiquitous.

It is Terminal Madness hat has led to so much fear, pain and sorrow.

It is Terminal Madness that led to 9/11.

It is Terminal Madness that results in so much unprecedented depression and suicide in societies everywhere.

It is Terminal Madness that will lead us into the Nuclear War which is to commence very shortly that I predicted long, long ago.

You can see these terminal Earth changes for yourself now if you bother to examine the landscape astutely.

Americans as a group form a perfect example of the Awakening, and the Evil that is exposed, along with the pain and sorrow that must be endured.

Americans thought they were living in a land of bounty, like lambs in green pastures, protected and nurtured by the ones they elected for those very duties.

Instead they are now awakening to the Evil that allows their own Government to destroy nation after nation, as it has done, to steal from them, the citizens, with a flick of the economic switch, and which can murder them with utter contempt and mayhem as in 9/11, and so on. Worse is to come. All you have to do is open your eyes and see truly.

But the Americans have awoken. Now they know they are trapped in a cauldron of 'Hell', held there by Demonic Archons who care naught for them. All these Evil Rulers want to do is exploit them maximally. The Demonic Archons suspected this mass awakening would occur, and all the measures they have taken to imprison the terrified populace are testimony to this reality. Why else do you think you are abused with such persistent brutality?

It is because you, as individuals, have awoken to the evil scam that had entrapped all of 'Humanity' for so long.

Thus, the Mass Awakening has allowed all to see Evil, feel the Essence of Evil, and suffer under Evil, even when they chose nothing of the sort. Now it can be clearly stated that only blind fools deny the existence of Evil.

Everyone has to awaken in these Final Days, not just Americans.

Everyone WILL awaken to his or her ontological status. By that I mean each will know deep within its heart whether it is Viable or not, whether it is of Peace and Love or whether it is not.

There can be no pretence in this matter.

How do I know so much about the Clearing of the Planet, the Awakening, the Terminal Madness, the numbers that are Viable, etc., etc.? How do I know facts and figures no one else on the planet knows?

Could it be that I am intimately involved in the process?

Indeed I am.

From another level, whether you want to believe it or not, “I” and my team are conducting this Clearing of the Planet, its Destruction, and the Evacuation of Viables, while sending the non-Viables into the Transmutation Process.

Whether you accept this or reject it is of no relevance to me. I simply state it to show you the reality of what I write.

And this fact, that I am conducting it from another level, and representing the Process on this level, explains why I am to be here for the Final Day, as I have stated numerous times previously.

POSTSCRIPT 1

The entire Universe is fragmenting.

I mentioned in my work that our Sun, the planets of this Solar system, and the whole Galaxy would be destroyed as Earth would be. I mentioned some 94% of the Universe was already corrected and no longer physically exists.

Want some sort of proof? Watch this clip:

http://beforeitsnews.com/space/2014/04/jupiter-freaks-out-and-almost-nobody -notices-videos-2478414.html

POSTSCRIPT 2

If you do not believe the Archons are insane, and definitely in self-destructive mode, look around the planet more critically and tell me what you see. They are destroying all aspects of existence on this sorry orb: ecologically, financially, agriculturally, medically, militarily, etc. There is absolutely no chance the planet would survive their onslaught if my actions were to cease.

Pollution of air, soil and water, death of the Oceans, disappearing Flora and Fauna, irradiation from Fukushima, etc., unstoppable and evermore destructive Terminal Madness paint a Doomsday scenario. The most conservative of scientific estimates has it that ALL Oceans will be sterile by 2048. We will never see that year!

But I and my Team are here to assist the evacuation of Viables. We will make their end swift.

Then consider such lunacy as the Lucifer Project by NASA by which they attempted to destroy the whole Solar System.

These same lunatics were the ones who, in our Solar System, destroyed the atmosphere of Mars and blew up the planet Maldec, the remains of which now form the Asteroid Belt.

There is some information about the Lucifer Project on the clip I gave above.

Essential Gnostic Truths - Chapter 32 The End

By Joseph Chiappalone MD 4-23-14

I wrote this book almost 30 years ago.

Do not look too far into the future, for the plan for this Earth is too gruesome to behold.

How can one describe the powerful death with all its writhing and throes of millions in a sea of turmoil?

How can one endure the cry for compassion and mercy when the carnage is witnessed? It will take strength indeed not to fall victim to the fear of that which is to take place and the pleas of the robots as they are discharged from this plane.

The pitiful wails will not be for lost love or missed opportunity to be of service. Rather, they will be from the fear of what is to come, and from the anguish of knowing who they are, what they have done and what is to happen to them.

Do not look or listen. Avoid their anguish and pleas. Remove yourself from their midst. Close your eyes to them for even in this they are trying to drain you of that which is of value - - your Divine energy.

Do not regard them.

Do not look upon them as humans.

They have never been human.

They have never wanted or given love.

They are demons, spawned and nurtured with your destruction in mind. Let not one of you be reached by their false cries. Not one of them will turn with humility and love to the true God.

They are incapable of love, humility and repentance.

They are the Essence of Evil which is to be destroyed FOREVER.

The world is spinning away unaware of that which is about to grip it. Most have been stunned enough in their awareness to be completely oblivious to the plight of the planet, dimension and realm.

Many have tried valiantly, repeatedly and untiringly to alert the drugged and trapped beings but to no avail.

There is a massive battle raging all around this globe, and yet so very few in it are aware of this war. It will not be long however, before all will be forced to awaken to that which they have ignored for such a long time.

It will not be good enough for them to say they did not know, or that they were too busy, or that it was not their business, for in truth it was the affair of all to know what was going on in the other spaces affecting this planet.

O, how cruel the mendacious deceivers have been, they who have with one hand blinded the populace to the real situation and with the other pulled them to their spiritual death.

Look at the people on this planet. With very few exceptions they are lost in their own games of pursuing illusions. There is no real meaning in their lives.

They exist as automatons beating a well-worn path in trying to either keep body and soul together, or in trying to have fun - whatever that means to them.

This trying to have fun usually means trying to forget the plain truth of things for long enough to think that one is actually enjoying one’s life.

But contentment, serenity and happiness can never come from the external. These things can only come from within the beings.

What is really happening?

What is the fate of this globe?

What is the cause of this battle surrounding this planet?

How will it be resolved?

Who will win?

These are questions which need to be answered, and answered quickly, for time is running out.

Awareness of the situation at this time is essential, for with it comes the preparation which will prove to be of extreme benefit.

Without such awareness and preparation one can only expect to be caught in fears, in suffering and possible panic as the changes about to evolve on this planet commence.

Making sense of the madness is essential, and yet the majority of beings on this planet do not even realize that they are existing within a madness.

They take this planet and this existence as a normal state of affairs. And this, of course, is far from the true way things should have been.

To those unawakened, the changes about to occur will greet them with an abruptness from which they will never recover. Whatever you do, do not be one of them.

Whence the American Dream? By Joseph Chiappalone MD Motto - Take It Or Leave It 1-25-13

When scanning daily newspapers via the Internet each morning one has to wade through the filth set out to feed the demons, and the trivia to keep the robotic minds occupied and programmed, in order to connect the dots on developing trends or find an ounce of truth in the midst of the baloney and polluting propaganda.

Occasionally something like the following article appears that is of extreme significance. It is a news report worth reading

. http://www.theage.com.au/world/china-colonel-raises-nuclear-spectre-20130122-2d56p.html

It is the most overt expression of Archonic intention that one could read since WW2.

And what are we to make of this article?

http://beforeitsnews.com/china/2013/01/china-plan-to-establish-china-cities-and-special-economic-zones-all-over-america-2445222.html

Is the intention of conquest and post war occupation not clear enough for you? Is America in the generation in which it will pay for the Zionist-inspired opium abuse of many generations of Chinese which destroyed millions of lives, and for its other sins?

We had continual reports, of course, of the intention of wars against Iraq, Afghanistan, Libya, and many, many other nations and communities, etc., and the murderous sanctions for those who would not comply with the wishes of the Evil Masters of the Planet.

But, until the first article above, we have never had such a clear expression of what lies ahead between different classes of Archons.

If you need reminding that Archons are bellicose, just revise this (incomplete) list of wars in which the USA involved itself and ask of yourself: Can warmongers really be children of God?:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_wars_involving_the_United_States

Now with our knowledge of false flag operations to initiate wars and bring supposed peace by inducing Terror and Retaliation, we know how the Archons live and cause others, even their own, to die, for they feed on the detritus of the dead!

As I have said many times, the evil rulers are programmed to self-destruct in this Endtime Period, bringing the planet to its long-expected demise, and this article tells us so explicitly.

Some of you may recall that in the 1990s I wrote repeatedly, and said repeated on the Jeff Rense Show, that a stage was being set for the Archons to fight each other, but this time to their true death.

Those of you with access to Jeff's Archives should listen to those shows. In them, I said the Reptilian Masters who had governed the USA for a long, long time were about to shift to China for a number of reasons and, by doing so, they would allow another group of reptiles, called the Vulturite Reptilians to take the reins of the abandoned USA.

Remember that all Reptilians are Evil. There are other groups of reptilians overshadowing the cardboard boxes on the planet, but these I mentioned above are the predominant two groups.

These two groups of Reptilians, controlling China and the USA respectively, are bitter natural enemies, more so than more sedate reptiles, and they are forever fighting. However, even though the Vulturite Reptilians are far more ruthless and deceitful, they have NEVER won a war against the group that abandoned the USA and went to China.

I said this in the shows and former articles, and I also said that China would become the dominant power on the planet in a few short decades.

That has already happened. The forecast has been fulfilled.

Their imminent conflict will engulf the whole globe. No one can or will remain neutral. Note Colonel Liu's advice to Australia to butt out! That was rhetoric, of course. China sees Australia as one big lucrative patch on their future landscape. To them, it is but one big source of coal, iron ore and uranium mines. So, what do you really think it wants to do with Australia really?

How did I know that this conflict would arise? How do I know anything?

At any rate, you will agree that China has made an almost unbelievable improvement in its status and role on the planet, economically, politically and militarily.

Some ten years ago, you may recall, a Chinese official had said that a major war between China and the USA (implying the WEST) was/is INEVITABLE.

I also said in the shows and essays that, seeing the Reptiles who are now so successful in China have never been defeated in a war with the Vulturites who rule the USA, the USA will lose this war too. And they WILL lose it. But in the end, all of Evil will lose.

Realize that these Reptiles are consciousnesses beyond the 'human' class 4 plane. They can, of course, incarnate into a body, overshadow it, or even possess it (demonic possession). Some of you, again as I predicted, are regaining your psychic vision and seeing these reptilian consciousnesses in human 'cardboard boxes'.

Why did the Reptiles who controlled the USA move to China?

It was a matter of expediency. They realized the trapped robots in the USA were beginning to awaken and would be harder to control. We have now seen that this is so. More and more stringent measures are being implemented to contain the awakening sheople. See the url below.

Conversely, in China, at that time, they had over one billion robots ready to be used as unquestioning workers and cannon fodder. They were not only asleep but ready to work hard to achieve material gain and National Prestige. And, of course, their progress would enrich and aggrandize their Reptilian Masters, as, in fact, has been the case.

In contrast to the meteoric rise of China that I predicted, the USA began a slide into cruelty, ruthlessness and decay which we have witnessed since the commencement of George W Bush's Presidency.

That decline will continue inexorably. More pain, suffering and sorrow will be felt by those trapped in the USA as time proceeds, brought on by the actions of the vicious Reptiles that control them and the consequences of their foolish actions against the Superior Reptiles who now control China.

Tell me it is not so? Tell me you are enjoying the Land of the Free and the Brave as was promised to you in your childhood!

Just look at this item:

http://beforeitsnews.com/alternative/2013/01/pentagon-says-protests-are-acts-of-low-level-terrorism-2541612.html

Examine the newspaper article quoting Colonel Liu and you will clearly see the intention by China to destroy the USA and its allies. In it, Colonel Liu is warning Australia not to support the USA. But really no one is fooled. The intentions are clear.

Such rabid talk is of unmistakable significance.

What is also very clear from the article is that the USA seems to have grossly underestimated China's power and this will be a fatal mistake.

This rhetorical and yet aggressive and confronting article follows another that is surely not more than a week old in which a USA spokesman assured the West that it, the USA, has the MORAL right to a NUCLEAR PRE-EMPTIVE STRIKE AGAINST CHINA. It was in the context of the dispute by Japan and China about regional islands with the USA claiming it is supporting Japan.

In these days of satellites that can read newspaper print on the ground and of self-guided intercontinental nuclear missiles, what advantage can a Pre-emptive strike offer? 2-3 minutes? More like 0.25 seconds which is the average reaction time of a female operator to press the retaliatory button! Why a female? They have faster reflexes. Think about that Pre-emptive Strike and its fallacious advantage.

Re-read the article and more revelations will come to you.

The reason I drew attention to it is that it follows the precise pattern I had predicted long ago.

These Demonic Reptilian consciousnesses are purposely programmed to fight each other and self-destruct.

They WILL destroy most of the physical world around us and the cardboard boxes that count as Humanity.

Their EGOs rage. Ego is an evil creation.

Timing is not of great importance if you have understood my writings.

I recall a Chinese General saying less than 10 years ago that a confrontation of China with the USA is inevitable within 10 years. That 10 year period is almost up.

Be fearless! We all need to leave these cardboard boxes and Viables are to return Home.

The rest, failures, are as Wraiths awaiting spiritual dissolution upon their physical extinction.

LORD SHIVA'S RETURN

In a previous essay, I mentioned a New Divine Energy had been released onto the plane.

Its function is very different from that of the nurturing New Green Energy that is sustaining the Viables through this horror phase of existence. The 5000 helpers around the planet are acting as dispensing stations for the NGE, distributing it to the 650 million or so Viables that are to be rescued.

The very latest energy of which I speak is to be anchored onto this level and directed by one individual, the Last Avatar, to act as a detonator in the Hot Spots around the planet in order to bring them to their fulminating End. A splinter of the Consciousness of the Last Avatar and Its energy are on every structure of this Universe, doing the same job.

Those of you who like analogies should recall the story of Shiva and consider that He has descended into this doomed dimension for the last time in his Rudric form to allow the Agni aspect to consume all Evil and all its progeny with fire!

Remember, all these concepts, such as Shiva, Rudra, Agni, etc., have been recalled by aspects of Humanity from eras past, long before this one, and the so-called myths that recount their lives originated from the Truth of a Greater Reality. Like all knowledge, eventual corruption on this level has reduced them simply to the mythical fables of certain religions.

But, no matter how convoluted, entangled and distorted all Myths become, once they are unraveled, they all reveal a kernel of Truth.

Could all this be true?

You tell me.

Look long and hard at your life, and the planet.

What do your eyes see?

What does your Higher Mind tell you?

As the planet implodes, realize that the presence of this second New Divine Energy that will bring matters to a close demonstrates that the True Divine Consciousness has really always been in control.

In order to prepare yourself further, please read my essay 'Terminal Madness of the Endtime' which I wrote and published in 1998, if you have not already done so.

Here is an expanded version of the essay, the original of which you can find on my website. In both versions I give the prophecy of future animosity between China and the USA and its consequences.

Terminal Madness of The Endtime An Examination Of The Status Quo

Explaining Terminal Madness of The Endtime

Originally Published Jan 7, 2001

Reprinted on the Rense.com site on March 5, 2010

It never ceases to amaze me how willingly and deceitfully the Counterfeit Consciousnesses attempt to fool themselves.

As you are well aware, many, many articles which are proudly presented on the web, by the Sons and Daughters of Darkness, are presented with false joy, proclaiming also, with the Arrogance of Ignorance, that all is well, that the Earth is merely reacting to minor human abuse of it and that really all human consciousness is about to ascend into godly levels, for the planet is undergoing a vital, necessary and timely spiritual initiation. In this quantum leap into a rewarding nirvana are included all the most evil demons and derelicts of Hell which are becoming more and more obvious to those with even the slightest true spiritual acumen.

Some of the false writings, of course, vary in the degree of assertiveness about the supposed soon-to-be-made jump, and give leeway to freewill in order to account for the most evil whom they consider perhaps unprepared to enter heaven with the rest of the wonderful and evolving members of humanity.

You know from what I, as a representative of the Team which is assisting the Correction on this level, have written and declared, that the above scenario is all bunkum. Nonetheless, there are many versions of this "rapture" process - a distortion of the true process of Evacuation of Consciousness!

A description of the status quo follows. Before I start the description however, you should be aware of the fact that Humanity is not an ontologically homogeneous entity, as those of Darkness would want you to believe. Certainly the physical shells share a common genetic basis, but the consciousnesses which inhabit those shells are of 3 distinct groups. They are either of a theomorphic origin, or products of the Counterfeit creation and classified as either robots or demons. I have explained these metaphysical facts in detail in various books, and mention them here briefly in order for readers who are not familiar with the details to understand the concepts in this essay more clearly.

The vast majority of Theomorphs (consciousnesses created by the True God Creator) who were trapped in this Counterfeit creation, and bound to this Earth and its astral or etheric planes, have been liberated. They have been rescued, salvaged if you will, and are in a safe, evil-free dimension, in temporary intermediatory villages, awaiting entry into a New Dimension outside of this Evil and doomed Counterfeit Creation altogether. As I explained many times previously in other writings, the evacuation has been one of the consciousness, not of the physical bodies some of which died for various reasons. Other bodies still exist on this plane driven by the basic temporary biological consciousness of the body. Still others have been possessed by other consciousnesses, usually non-viable ones, descending from the astral planes, or ascending from the lower planes. There is a very practical point to knowing this point. You may know of someone who, for no apparent reason, has changed personality completely. It may be an entirely different consciousness occupying the vacated shell!

There are still a number of Theomorphs on the planet - warriors, and civilians who are assisting them, who are performing functions which are relevant to the energy patterns which are affecting the process by which this Celestial Error is being brought to a permanent Correction.

There are many counterfeit beings - beings created by the Usurper, the false god, the Evil Mind of the Celestial Error, who have been assessed as being spiritually viable in the context of the Corrective Process. They are being helped by the theomorphic warriors and their assistants, in ways which we on this level do not necessarily need to understand. All we need to know is that these 'counterfeit Viables' are also being evacuated. They come from the robotic class of beings created in this artificial creation. As you will know from what I have written previously, there is also a DEMONIC class of consciousness created by the Evil Mind of this Celestial Error. No demon consciousness has turned to the Light.

Not all the consciousnesses I am referring to are just in the Human Class of Consciousness. All classes have robotic and demonic consciousnesses. And all classes have theomorphic warriors and civilian consciousnesses in their midst. This may be difficult for the lower physical mind to understand, but the fact that one cannot understand the concept fully does not mean it is not true. Hence, the mineral, vegetable, animal, human, the fifth (spiritual, devic, angelic) class, the galactic class and the universal class are all undergoing this selective evacuation and fragmentation and correction.

As this evacuation of 'Viables' occurs, they take their energy and Light with them. Hence, there is less and less in the classes remaining. What this means in pragmatic terms is that the percentage of failed, doomed beings of Darkness in all classes is increasing.

This is obvious from the behaviour of beings we see around the globe. There is not just fragmentation of human minds, but also an inexorable breakdown of all aspects of the mineral, climatic, biological, counterfeit spiritual and celestial infrastructure of this Counterfeit and impermanent creation, which in true terms, is a Virtual Reality.

In a previous essay which I called "Terminal Madness of the Endtime", the reading of which may assist you to assimilate this information faster, I wrote about the Physical, Mental and Spiritual perspectives of the decay of this Earth, and after addressing the groups of objectors to my writings, I asserted that there was no other explanation to what is going on in this Earth outside of the explanation I am providing. This assertion stands. In fact, with each passing day, it is more and more clear for those with any degree of spiritual awareness.

- The Greenhouse Effect: The deleterious effects of Global Warming which have now been even more vigorously confirmed than when I wrote that first essay, and of pollution, as well as ozone depletion, have increased exponentially.
- Physical Disease: The looming dangers of diseases, old and new, have increased. These are affecting, not just humans, but animals and vegetation as well.
- Mad Cow Disease is spreading beyond borders in a manner which frightens those who fear physical death the most. Guesstimates of the number of possible victims always increase the numbers.
- The AIDS Syndrome, as I predicted, is continuing with its unstoppable march. Again I assert that no AIDS virus exists. The generally accepted scientific explanation of this doomsday disease is a hoax almost equalling Jehovah's ridiculous and egotistical and very evil assertion that he was/is the One and Only God! Not only is there no virus to cause the disease, but the demonic exploiters are making a fortune selling dangerous drugs to the people kept in ignorance, people who are victims of this terminal syndrome.

I have stated previously that the causative agent is a prion which has a deactivated dark matter component attached. This component cannot be identified at present with the gross technological tools at humanity's disposal. It is activated by pathological levels of cellular oxidation caused by such things as severe stress, persistent subclinical allergies (just as one can suffer from Genetically Modified foods), by excessive radiation, chronic malnutrition, chronic diseases such as TB, Malaria, worm infestation, etc. This month's United Nation Conference to establish a more rigorous policy to treat AIDS worldwide is but window dressing as you will see, employing empty words in another act in this Virtual reality, another act on this stage of dishonest, ignorant and evil fools.

- Chemtrails, which even the most inert minds are now sighting, are as sinister as the most paranoid of persons suspect. These effusions are being used to distribute a number of agents which are intended to alter the physical well-being and the GENETIC code of humans on a mass scale. As well as various prions, the chemtrails contain other agents which are attaching onto the genes of people and will cause various mutations when they are triggered by mechanisms set up by those who have authorised the chemtrail saturation of humanity. Biological components found in the assays of chemtrails aver to the fact that such may well be the case. I realise this is beyond the scope of most people to understand and/or accept.

However, the scenario is a reality. Fuller understanding can only come with a degree of cognisance of the fact that there are other consciousnesses, apart from human ones, who are attempting to redefine existence on this plane, and are working against those assisting with the Corrective Process I have mentioned.

- GM Foods: The apparently commercially sound practice of using Genetically Modified foods in all aspects of the food chain is nothing more than a clandestine and very purposeful attempt by the Archons to invade the genetic pools of vegetation, animals and humans in order to manipulate them at will in due course. The other effects of such foodstuffs, such as allergy, cellular stress, etc., which may activate disease causing prions in those not protected by certain vaccinations given by the aliens (usually at the time of forceful abductions) are in essence a bonus to these experimenting, meddling evil aliens.
- Alien Agendas. More and more people are becoming aware of aliens among us and around us. Inspite of the best efforts by sceptics, who are really programmed bigots attempting to keep the plane in perennial ignorance, people are awakening to the reality of UFOs, Aliens, alien abductions, beings of, and doorways to, other dimensions, etc., etc. I predict that the amount of physical evidence which will confirm these other aspects of a Greater Reality will explode and leave no one in any doubt of what is going on.

THE THREE REALITIES

On previous occasions I have also written and spoken about three realities impinging on our lives.

THE PROSAIC REALITY.

This consists of the fraudulent Triad of History, Science, and Religion defining what we are, how we live and what is going on. These are False Facades of a Failing Virtual Reality as more and more people are suspecting. They are part of the illusion of the Plane, using lies to keep us trapped in Ignorance and proclaiming that Humanity is in control of the Earth and its own destiny. But, in reality, they are failing miserably to maintain us in the cage of Stupidity of this false reality.

Thus, more and more are questioning the History that is presented as truth. That is why Science is at an apparent loss to integrate the reality of UFOs. Aliens, Evacuation of Consciousness, Terminal Madness, etc. And that is why awakening people are leaving Religions in droves, realising no valid answers are there to be gained. Of course, the more fully programmed robots and demons are fighting for their sanity by sticking to the fragmenting scenario of this History, Science and Religion as best they can.

Others have seen the fraudulence, but being unable to integrate the reality of Spiritual Accountability and Judgement, are wallowing in the shadows of madness as they seek escapisms from that which cannot be avoided.

For details of why I have written this about History, Science and Religions which have corrupted Seeds of Truth in order to enslave bodies and minds, I refer you to my website and books.

THE ARCANE REALITY.

This is also a pseudo reality but its awareness allows an awakening to the control of Earth and its inhabitants by occult Brethren of Darkness. There are Alien Civilizations in and around Earth whose agendas have been part of human affairs for far longer than most imagine. These are evil aliens who colonized this planet, as they have many others, and, in fact, set up the physical aspect of Humanity as an ongoing experimentation, using stolen plans acquired illegally from the True Creation. In the process of usurping this area they entrapped the Theomorphs who were already here in differing forms.

This aspect of reality is complicated. There have been many, many alien civilizations which have not only visited Earth, but also have been interactive with other aliens here, with the biological experiments set up by other aliens, and with whom they have often waged war. Most of these aliens have energetically exploited Humanity in various ways, especially the entrapped Theomorphs, while remaining well hidden from view, as would keepers in a well-stocked zoo. This reality too is undergoing fragmentation, for all levels of the Counterfeit Virtual Reality are doomed to finish.

These are the aliens who have provided technology, some apparently benign, but most of it certainly destructive, who have now impregnated their biological experiments with agents such as prions, which have caused Mad Cow Disease, AIDS, etc. These are the ones who have cloned many humans, who have become evil human walk-ins, who control the world in various ways. They are experimenting with hybrids such as chupacabras which they hope will survive the changing Earth conditions so that their own consciousnesses will be catered for.

They are the Archons. They are a more advanced class of Sons and Daughters of Darkness. They are being seen more and more as the Virtual Reality fractures and people are acquiring true inner vision, psychic visions, as I said they would as the Endtime approaches.

There are many groups of these aliens, but 6 major ones have shared the “wealth” of this planet of late. The Reptilians, who until recently controlled the world through the US government, are the most powerful of these evil alien clans. They have now shifted their consciousness to China. They are preparing to conduct open warfare with their most threatening foe, the Vulturites, who have been able to gain control of a very much-weakened USA since the Reptilians moved on. These points are of relevance in understanding why World War 3 will begin and why the USA and China are such bitter enemies.

THE REALITY OF THE TRUE GOD CONSCIOUSNESS.

Regardless of what many may want to believe to the contrary, a True God Consciousness does exist. Via Beings called the Elohim in ancient texts (true Divine Consciousness, as I use the word), this Consciousness is the one which has been balancing this evil plane with its Light while its Theomorphic offspring were evacuated bit by bit over a long, long time. We have now come to the end of this Process of Evacuation. This is the Consciousness which has accessed each consciousness, whether Theomorphic or Counterfeit, and judged it for spiritual worthiness. In other words, the Final Judgment of all “souls” has already occurred.

The Corrective Process involves the Liberation of True Beings and all others deemed viable from Darkness. As a consequence, the structures holding such beings in Darkness will collapse. This is why this world, and the entire Physical Universe, is collapsing. The non-viable aspects will simply disintegrate for they can no longer gain energy, as they did from the Theomorphs, to sustain themselves. You see, the Counterfeit Creation has been a parasite on the True Creation. Now, unable to feed itself, it is starving to death.

The consciousnesses deemed non-viable will be made inert by a Process of Transmutation. This process itself however is not inert. Those undergoing it will relive the horror they have caused others. In the course of True Justice, each will get exactly what it deserves, as all have been given countless chances to step out of the Darkness into the Light. All who are now non- viable have chosen in various ways to remain in the Darkness, for it suited them. They gained too much from the suffering of others with the Evil they committed and convinced themselves that their nefarious feasts were never-ending, inspite of the countless warnings of a Final Judgment, of Accountability, given by Beings such as Rama, Krishna, Moses, Buddha, Zoroaster, Jesus, Manichaeus, Mohammed, etc., etc.

These evil, renegade aliens who infected this Earth after escaping from various celestial wars are being rounded up for transmutation also. No one can escape the process.

An awareness of this very complicated matter, even to a moderate degree, allows some sort of understanding of the Fragmentation Process to which this Earth and all its people, all its processes and its inhabitants, even the non-human, are being subjected.

The instability of Climate, Tectonic plates, microbial life, vegetation, animal and human minds is due to the shortage of spiritual energy being suffered by the plane as the Light recedes. This Earth is plunging headlong into an Abyss of Darkness from which it cannot be retrieved. However, be not concerned for nothing of value is being lost.

TERMINAL MADNESS

Madness is everywhere, is it not? Alas, it is a modern day truism that Fear and Anxiety, often for no apparently rational reasons, are masters of the non-viable human psyche.

This being the case, you can extrapolate exactly what is to occur. With minds steeped in Darkness and with the ratio of demons increasing, there shall be an ever-increasing demonic madness which will engulf the plane. Already we are seeing this.

- The Madness of Climate is obvious to all.
- Vegetation, with ubiquitous, poisonous and strangling superweeds, with failure of crops, with encroaching Genetically Modified seeds, with allergenic components, with loss of rain forests, with release of toxins more and more, with fast disappearing species, is reflecting biological decay and madness.
- Animal behaviour is becoming more unpredictable.
- Human minds are fragmenting, imploding, decaying.
- The unnecessary culling of animals in danger of minor illness, as occurred in Britain recently involving Foot and Mouth Disease, reflects human madness. The so-called commercial and health excuses given by those who claim they are in control only highlight the stupidity which accompanies the madness. Of significance is the way they treat the animals as objects to be exploited at will, paying no attention to the suffering and misery to the animals and to many of their owners which they unnecessarily cause. Oh, my, what a wonderful world!

Expect more such inappropriate decisions by the Archons as their minds decay.

- However, the increased ferocity of animals, their unpredictable behaviour, the imbalance of certain numbers while other species become extinct all demonstrate the system, as well as the animals, are going mad for they, and the system, are subjected to the same Process of Fragmentation as are all physical manifestations.
- A return to dangerous hybridization experiments and cloning, as was done in ages past, before this epoch of history (which is the last of 7 on this Earth) is paving the path to horror, terror and further illness, disease and instability both for animals and humans. If time permits, hybrids with mixed animal and human genes will be “created” by mad scientists, not just for body parts, milk, vaccines, etc., but also for sexual gratification of demons, again as was done in ages past. Bestiality, much on the rise as demonic consciousnesses express more and more in human shells, is a pointer to this.

- If for no other reason, aspects of Humanity can be condemned totally for their exploitation, abuse and murder, in a metaphysical sense, of beings in other classes of consciousness which have been forced to share this Earth. More and more are awakening to the horrendous suffering and misery to which the animals of the world have been subjected. The abuse is even more ghastly when it is realized that many human consciousnesses are forced to regress from human into animal bodies in the ridiculous and evil cycle of Reincarnation and its law of Unjust Karma. Those who quote distorted and spurious texts of ancient manuscripts, including the Judeo-Christian Bible, as self-defense for their demonically carnivorous ways are doomed to perish in the Darkness of such fraudulence.
- Violence, anarchy, ruthlessness, selfishness and ungodliness are increasing daily.
- Pornography is rampant, increasing at an alarming rate. As mentioned, even animals are not safe from demonic sexual predators.
- Greed and exploitation by those in control of the concrete jungle are increasing as masses are herded like cows into ever-tighter physical and mental compartments.
- Fragmentation is affecting programming methods previously used successfully by the Archons to control people. Thus, forms of the Media, Religions, History, are no longer as effective in manipulating minds which are escaping the indoctrination of former times. The exposures on the World Wide Web, which the archons are desperate to control, to censor, have played a large part in freeing minds. But, in order to regain lost ground, even more surreptitiously evil mind control processes are attempting to dangerously reprogram the minds of the common denominators, the sheople, the goyim, so that they can be pacified, lulled back into the illusion of the Virtual Reality, and then further exploited and turned into tax-paying pawns who, when given the signal, will march into a war from which they gain naught.

I cite the destruction of Iraq and the former Yugoslavia as recent examples.

- Paranoia is mounting, and, in a form of escapism, some are attempting to fragment countries and governments while others seek friends to form blocs in which to feel safer and with which to attack others in due course.
- Fragmentation is affecting all levels of society. Not just nations, but states, communities, institutions, families and couples are showing the mental decay, the result of which is dissipation, for many minds now are subjected to internal stresses giving doubt, confusion, anxiety, fear and suicidal depression in increasing numbers. It is a paradox, because in this age, with material abundance, stability should be the result. But it is not, for the very reasons I am giving.

- Beware! No unprotected mind is safe, for the ever-present twins, Anxiety and Fear, are bubbling up to affect the outer minds of individuals from their deep subconscious where the truth of what is going on is being told to each consciousness unerringly.
- Fear from financial and emotional insecurity is also threatening minds as never before. And as financial instability affects most of the world, fear, insecurity, anger and paranoia inflame self-pitying minds whose belligerence is easily inflamed by demagogues and poor politicians alike. Have we not, on countless times, seen war being used as a means to restart economies regardless of the real consequences of such a war? Times are ripening for such abuse of power by those who think they can afford to exercise it.

Alas, there appears to be no end to the depravity and evilness of the Counterfeit Creation.

- In a futile attempt to blot out the reality of Judgement, of Failure and of Finality, and with a deficiency of energy with which to uphold the Virtual Reality, vulnerable outer minds are becoming trapped by their inherent fears. Some express this as anger, others as anxiety, still others succumb to the gloom and doom of their own failure and seek a means of physical escape.
- Suicides are increasing at exponential rates for that reason.
- Still others grasp at straws, and seek longevity by absurd means. Some are already eating foetuses in order to gain the stem cells found there in an attempt to prolong their lives. Soon, as demons will have it, babes will be eaten publically and unashamedly, as I predicted will occur.
- Others, as I said, are attempting commercial and illegal cloning and the manufacture of body parts in animals. This hybridization is not new. It was done in the time of Atlantis and on Mars not long ago.
- The Madness of Nations is seen in the preparation for Nuclear War everywhere, in the firm willingness to commit to battle no matter the consequences. This is the War I have predicted, a war no one can win.
- Hatred and the lust for Vengeance grow with the madness as the lowest common denominators of populations urge their leaders boldly and openly to conduct war on their enemies, not realizing they are clammering for their own annihilation as well. Such is the nature of Terminal Madness.
- The Search for the Ethnic Bullets to obliterate other competitive races, is just another form of nihilistic madness.

I am certain that each reader can make an expansive list of other incidents which highlight the destructive, aberrant, demonic behaviour of members of this Human Race.

The atavistic tendency which will see the darkness of demonic souls expressed more and more freely and violently on this plane is not so much a regression due solely to external factors. Rather, it is the unbridled release of the nature of the Counterfeit souls (consciousnesses) who have always yearned for the opportunity to express this, their true behaviour.

Now, with diminishing Light on the globe, and with mind energy (prana) at starvation levels for the failures, their rampage in search of energy is occasion for them to express their vile demonic nature fully. Those who are not of the demonic clan, but are failed robots nonetheless, will be programmed by the pervading Darkness of demonic minds and will be swept headlong into the horrors of the fulminating, destructive Endtime. Quick glances at Rwanda, Indonesia, Kosovo, etc., give previews of what is to come on a grand scale.

As this process engulfs the globe, all will see who and what these failures are. And each will recognize the need for Correction and the reason why such beings are failures and can have no part in any process outside of the influence of Evil.

The Evil basis of Humanity, and of the Aliens who created this absurdity, under the direction of the Evil Mind of the Celestial Error, which itself is undergoing transmutation, will be exposed as never before.

Although what I have written here may appear to some as extreme, let those who want to see the Truth of what is going on identify clearly the signs of the emerging reality.

Apart from the exceptions I mentioned, all who have yearned for Justice and Peace have been evacuated. They were the ones who prayed for this Hell to end. For them it has ended, in the best way possible. They are out of it and in a place of Joy and True Freedom. For them there is no longer the battle against injustice, nor the constant pain, suffering, exploitation and misery of this hellish and vile Counterfeit Creation.

Those who luxuriated in the iniquities of this abomination now have to go through the process of their own Madness, having created it by their constant denial of the need for Justice and Accountability.

I write these words not to frighten anybody but to accelerate the understanding of those who wish to know what is going on, and to advise those who are to succumb to the fires of their own Hell, that it was they who fanned the flames with their own iniquities. These were the fools who could not wait to ridicule what I had to say. They can blame no one but themselves for what they suffer. Truly each will get exactly what it deserves, no more and no less.

If readers genuinely wish to know more about this information, I ask that they listen to the various interviews I have given to Jeff Rense which may be heard in his program archives, read the newsletters, articles, essays, etc., on my website (www.jchiappalone.com) and, if need be, read some of my books and listen to lectures I have given over the years.

A recent lecture is on You Tube: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2NDV9QZwuYQ

Are you feeling a little traumatized by this information?

Worse is to come. Prepare properly. Emotional turmoil is unavoidable, so you have to train yourself to be unaffected. What did the Buddha say?

Here is one example of what is in store: I have already revealed that over 30% of consciousnesses in human bodies are of a demonic essence. That means literally that in an extended family of, say, 9, three will be demons. And you will realize that, and see them, before the end. If you are a Viable, realize that they are your mortal enemies in essence, regardless of their familial associations.

But, on the other hand, consider this: If you received news of the end forever of all pain, suffering, misery, illness, death, poverty, unrequited love, boredom, anxiety, fears and depression, how would you feel?

If you were promised a world with no taxes and no bullies, no hypocrites, no cheats, no liars and no murderers, no more war, no more episodes of personal failure in anything you attempt, would you not be ecstatic?

Would you not be impatient for such a world?

Well, the process we are undergoing on this level at this very moment is to make that promise real.

Smile, for if you truly are one of Peace, Truth and Love, this is the most joyous news you could ever possibly receive.

OK, so you have to 'drop the shell', leave the cardboard box, physically die. So what? You have done that thousands of times and are still in existence. This last time is no more traumatic. In fact, it should be joyous if you make the full realization that you will be physically dying for the very last time.

Read any accounts of those who have had Near Death Experiences. Not one wants to voluntarily come back into the physical, even though they only experience the Astral World, which is still part of the Virtual Reality.

Can you imagine how much better the True Reality is? It is so wonderful that it really is beyond our imagination and comprehension

Awaken fully and prepare for take-off.

I repeat, this is the best news you will ever hear!

Essential Gnostic Truths - Chapter 40

Nuclear War

By Joseph Chiappalone MD 4-23-14

Nuclear war is inevitable. It is one of the quickest ways of evacuating vast numbers out of the physical. It will begin in the Middle East but many other areas will be bombed, for the fighting will spread without reason.

The U.S.A. and Russia will be greatly affected, as will be Europe and the Middle East. Africa, South America and Asia will be more affected by the consequences of the nuclear war, and not by the bombing. Mass starvation, disease and pestilence will be their lot.

Effects of a Nuclear Winter will be unavoidable. Israel will be totally destroyed in a flash. So will end the claim of `God's People'. All will know something far more than that which they acknowledged previously is at work when this happens.

The Christian Fundamentalist robots will go scurrying for cover. They will be beside themselves with fear.

This war will not last long, but it will involve all nations on all continents and will kill between one quarter to one half of the world's population.

Over the following 12 months after the war 50% of those remaining will die of disease or starvation or of the continuing fighting that will occur.

The one quarter that remain will be affected by all the natural disasters which will occur around the globe.

Not much more than 24 months after the war begins, it will be all over with all people dead.

(I have revised my estimate of the End to approximately November, 2016)

Hostilities will greatly increase between all nations and the scene will be very explosive. In the meantime, many more people will be absconded by the U.F.O.'s. Many more people will simply disappear.

U.F.O. sightings will dramatically increase and fear in communities will also increase.

The natural disasters will heighten tension among nations and this will facilitate commencement of the war.

The Japanese robots will be removed from the scene virtually overnight with the catastrophic destruction of the Japanese islands in a way which was previously described and which many have seen clairvoyantly. Massive earthquakes in the Mediterranean area will also occur as a compensatory mechanism.

The world economics will be destroyed with changes in the U.S.A., destruction of Japan, collapse of the Common Market. All the changes described previously by other seers will simply not have time to occur.

AIDS will continue to spread, but even the infected victims will die due to the nuclear war, or of starvation or of natural catastrophes before the illness has a chance to develop in them.

Once the process commences the speed of development will amaze all -

One catastrophe after another will occur.

One area after the other will be bombed.

One nation after the other will starve to death.

And there will be no help, for each of the other nations will be equally affected by radiation, failed crops and disease.

Most of the demons will be left as the last quarter of the population to leave the physical. They are to endure the most hardship, pain and sorrow, for it has been they who have been most forceful in destroying the True beings.

Most of the individuals who disappear will have been taken by the evil aliens. Very few will be the beings who have been chosen to continue in the new dimension.

(In other writings, I have given the number of approximately 650,000 as being Viable and worthy to continue existence).

All the might of all the nations of the Earth will be wiped out in a twinkling of an eye.

All will realize how impotent they really are.

All will know the real fear of failure.

All will know what it means to be Judged.

A LAST SCENE

People with children flee from the scenes of massive fires and bombed cities as nuclear bombs explode around them. Acrid fumes make the air unbreathable and the throngs are asphyxiated.

The rotting carcasses give off a stench which becomes unbearable, and the living abandon the areas because of it. Everything is valueless now and the little hope of survival drives the survivors to the hills and scrub.

Pestilence and disease follow them like vapours and many succumb to the infections. They do not struggle but rather they seek death as a comfort.

All illusions have been shattered as people try to grasp at what they thought life was. All of a sudden money, prestige, ego and position mean nothing. All are equal, and all are equally poor, diseased, pathetic, panicky and fearful.

Very few had awakened sufficiently to understand that which is occurring and even those who had heard some parts of my message and Gnostic Truth now continue to deny that they are true, and turn angrily to vehemently deny the existence of any evil, or justice, or God.

To the last will the evil robots play their games of deceit. But to the last will they suffer in the manner in which they forced others to suffer and perish.

People are more than shell shocked. They are already moribund even if they have not been physically hurt, for their minds are jolted so severely that they cannot fully comprehend that which is happening around them. And this forces such a strain on their brain/body connection, that they are semi- frozen into inactivity.

So much of what they took to be familiar areas of their daily lives have now disappeared, that they are grossly disorientated.

And there is no one to fix their lives.

They can sense the doom.

They can smell their death.

They can feel their end coming.

This will be the time when the living will envy the dead. There is no pleasure in anything. Even the sun is lustreless and cold, for it appears unable to penetrate the massive dust clouds which persist in covering the continents.

Plants shrivel and die without adequate sunlight, and food production of course fails miserably. Many unashamedly revert to cannibalism, not even waiting for their victims to die. They actively pursue them to eat. Children are a primary target. And of course many others try to protect them. Battles ensue with much slaughter and carnage and those who fall are devoured.

Total breakdown of organized authority allows the development of power packs and vigilantes. Racial and other long standing hatreds are exposed and many seek vengeance, even without rational provocation.

More killing, more slaughter, more mayhem.

The numbers remaining decrease daily, as more and more are forced to leave the physical by a number of mechanisms.

No resources and no fuels, for the plants and factories close down. No power, no water in places and no travel. Water infected by many diseases.

Food contaminated

Crops fail.

Locusts and pests out of control.

Birds and insects, rodents and bacteria do better and attack the crops and people.

Scenes resembling the medieval plagues occur. Technology of little use.

Pharmaceuticals dry up and are not manufactured.

All sense the end of the Race is imminent.

Few turn to the Spiritual Truth of the time.

Deceivers and fools continue in their false doctrines.

They will not admit that they are wrong.

Few tolerate the fundamentalists and those who preach “Love will heal all.”

Many massacred in anger.

Earth begins to crack up with landslides, volcanoes, earthquakes, etc.

Flooding takes many and destroys more and more arable land.

Extreme temperature conditions kill others.

Too much heat and too much frost in other places.

Massive number of suicides as many people cowardly seek a way out.

Deformed babies (due to the strong radiation) left to die. No means of helping them exists.

Loss of sexual programming causes fights between the sexes.

Drug use rampant while the drugs last.

People kill for the least reason.

Physical life no longer of any value.

Old and long forgotten differences are brought up and these cause much conflict and deaths.

Slowly each individual turns against every other individual whom he contacts.

Dissension will arise from the matter of colour, race, religions, sex, geography, disrespect, nationality, education, wealth, etc., etc..

No-one is safe.

A general apathy signaling loss of hope affects all remaining people and the realization that this is the end drives many insane.

In this phase, those who are to continue in the New Dimension are taken up by the crafts.

THE SUPREME BEING will appear when the conditions on Earth appear at their very worst.

People will need to realize the existence of a Superior Consciousness and they will witness its coming onto the various planes and dimensions around the physical, including the etheric and astral worlds.

The large cities and the more populous areas will be affected the most, and very quickly, by the nuclear affects, the food shortage, the contaminated water, the lack of power, the street violence, the infections and the pestilence.

These areas will be totally wiped out within a few short weeks to months after the commencement of the nuclear war. Other isolated packets of populations will be less affected and these will be subject to natural catastrophes in order to allow their devastation.

These natural changes will occur as a series over some months, nonetheless they will all be affected in due course.

Communication will be cut.

Travel will be minimal, even within countries.

Planes and ships will be inactive due to fuel lack, loss of skilled personnel and due to battles in ports of destination.

T.V. and Radios will be useless for there will be no transmissions.

Electricity will not be generated.

A total breakdown of civilization as it is known today will occur.

The isolated pockets of people who have prepared will survive on stored provisions until the final hour.

Those prepared, aware ones remain until the end because of work that needs to be done.

No-one outside of the very few will accept this message.

The War is won.

Nothing else matters.

The opposition is vanquished.

Seeing the world of today about to be destroyed, and understanding the reasons why it needs to be treated in this way, we can focus our attention on the glorious future in the New Dimension.

So lovely and pure will existence be in the `New World' that it is beyond description and comprehension of the physical minds of this plane.

All the evil with its ugliness, frustration, confusion, emotions, exploitation and smelly putrefaction will be left behind forever. It will be destroyed so that it cannot contaminate ever again.

Those in the New World will not have trouble adjusting, for all the mechanisms imposed upon them which respond to the impurity and which block purity will be eliminated.

So few are to continue. But each will be like a jewel in a crown, unique and much valued as well as beautiful and indispensable. No blemishes will exist for those who are to continue will be truly blessed with the Light of the Divine Being of Purity.

As the new settlers are accommodated, the unsavoury task of transmuting the damned will occur. Their consciousness and energy will be seen as filthy scum which needs to be scrubbed away from the dimension with as much force as possible.

Especially when one is working from a pure realm, the tolerance to such filth and evil will be very low indeed. And it will be an automatic reaction to destroy as much of it as possible and as quickly as possible.

Personalities will no longer be recognized. All that will be seen will be the consciousnesses as droplets of scum to be totally transmuted.

It is difficult to understand consciousness as being so sordid, but that is the truth of it. There is no other way of describing it.

Roughly there will be three groups apart from those taken in the course of action:

1. The New settlers teleported out before the end
2. Those of Light who will stay till the end.
3. The robots and demons who will be forced to stay till the end.

Most of the early new settlers will need extensive recuperation, healing and retraining. They will enter the new Dimension when the others arrive.

Their recuperation and retraining will mainly be in the crafts and on level 5.

UFOs trapped within this dimension (around this plane) will also be dealt with in the way of judgement. Escape will be impossible once the dimension is sealed off completely, and this will occur very shortly.

At present UFOs and consciousness are able to travel between closely connecting dimensions.

There is a far greater universe with a far greater awareness than man will ever know.

This particular race (the human race) will disappear forever. It has been a miserable experiment of the demiurge and a great pain for the Light.

All traces of it will be totally eradicated as will be all memory in the continuing consciousnesses.

Other dimensions will take great heed of what is to happen in this one and they will be easier to manage. The control and transmutation of evil will occur in them without the degree of massive destruction necessary in this one.

It is like blowing up a village in a war, as other neighbouring ones see the effect of non-cooperation, they tend to be more co-operative.

Eventually all of the evil essence needs to be eradicated via transmutation, and this will be executed in stepwise fashion throughout the sectors involved, including this particular physical universe.

There will be more and more talk of nuclear war until people are aware of its possibility and awaken to the reality of the imminent danger.

But they will shrug the danger off, even as the politicians of the countries concerned prepare for the nuclear combat. They will be shortsighted and non-caring, for they will have been programmed to attack and retaliate.

People will talk about the possibility of a nuclear war, the physical effects of the war, the aftermath, the deaths and the methods of avoiding it, but they will not realize that:

1. It is inevitable
2. It is very, very close
3. It is a mechanism to clear the plane.

They will continue to refuse to believe that this planet is totally condemned and all need to leave it. They have no clear vision whatsoever. And they cannot link the spiritual and metaphysical reality of what is occurring with the reality of the physical changes.

Even to the last minute people will refuse to believe their eyes, and yet they have been warned again and again and again.

The war will start as a minor exercise in the Middle East. Any of a number of nations are itching to launch a nuclear attack on Israel, and Israel is more than primed to attack or retaliate.

Almost instantly as the first strike occurs, the consciousness of the bombs themselves will make itself more felt and there will be a natural progression to expansion and escalation. This means that the more powerful nations will be involved. England will be bombed. And then there will be haphazard exchange throughout all the continents.

People should not concentrate on the physical effects, rather they should try to understand the spiritual significance of the nuclear war and the change to which this dimension is subjected.

Very few unfortunately will be able to bridge that gap and realize exactly what is going on. The majority will be terrorized out of their minds by the enormity of it all.

But it has all been given in plain and simple terms many times before. It is just that people have never bothered to listen.

But the occasions will be an opportunity for even more rapid realization of the True situation on this plane.

All the fools will then have nowhere to hide and no one to poke fun at as they scurry off for cover.

They will be sick and sorry for themselves for not having listened and not only not having prepared, but also not turning to the Light when the opportunities existed.

But of course it is in the nature of evil beings not to turn to the Light and not to admit the Truth, and so they will despair in the Gloom of Doom I have so often mentioned.

The changes upon the dimension are unprecedented. As things do occur, rationalists and other materialists will draw parallels to the times of this and that, and they will try to explain away all that is occurring. But of course no comparison can be drawn for this is the END TIME.

It is just that they will not admit it, and they will deny to the last the Truth of what is actually occurring. They will continue to deceive, as they have done in the past. But they are deceiving only themselves and those like them.

Others will begin to realize what is occurring, even though they have failed, and will be filled with dread just thinking of the enormous implications of it all.

People will begin to realize that it is a process of finality when things continue to occur, one after the other in the form of natural disasters, then the nuclear war and its aftermath of flooding, poisoning, famine, disease, pestilence, etc. and then more natural disasters, catastrophes and disappearances.

Those who have continued to deny the Truth, and that includes the majority, will have nothing and no one to turn to. They will refuse to outwardly acknowledge the Truth to the very last although inwardly they know the meaning of it all and will fear greatly that which is to come.

It is just that they will refuse to admit it even to themselves, and this will cause even greater anguish within them, for they know they are fooling themselves to no avail.

The programming which has deluded all the robots by all the various mechanisms will be broken, and they will then be forced to see the error of their ways and the Truth of what is happening. And many will turn like wild beasts to attack those who deceived them.

All will know the Truth, but like the rationalists, many will refuse to acknowledge it and the fact that they were wrong. They will play their charade to the end.

The Fundamentalists and others will be shocked that the Truth is not what they believed it to be and they too will know they have lived a lie, but they will not openly admit it.

These are worthless beings who will all be Transmuted because they have failed. Had they not failed, they would not have been trapped as they have been trapped.

So few are to continue onto the New Dimension that it is saddening to think of the destruction Evil has caused in this one in terms of lost consciousnesses, time and opportunity.

It is sad but true that the evil destruction has been a very high price paid, but then there was really nothing that could have been done more speedily.

This change on this planet will be a grim warning to the others watching that the action taken by the Light is drastic and that it means business in its plan to eradicate the Evil essence.

Be patient, all things will happen in good time, and when they do occur, it will all appear far too soon, for no one in the physical is really prepared for that which is to come, no matter how often one has wished it to happen.

Keep in mind at all times that which the action is to accomplish. In this way it will all make joyous sense. No one should focus on the action, but rather they should focus on the glorious future in the New Dimension.

When things begin, they will not stop. There will be a continuous occurrence of all the mechanisms of clearing which have been described. One by one will all these things occur, so that a break will not occur.

All mechanisms of programming, pollution and indoctrination are being used to cut the effectiveness of the workers of Light. This always occurs when the Light is close to major breakthroughs and the mechanisms must be actively resisted.

There is so little time left for this planet, and yet everything seems so normal.

Look through the illusion.

See that it is all a charade.

Behind the mask of the people lies the venom and hatred of each other and the unhealthy competition produced by programming.

Not a great incidence is needed to spark off a total conflagration of the planet, and that incidence may be quite a tiny one not worth considering under normal circumstances.

But these are not normal circumstances.

(As I have explained elsewhere, the evil Archons and their minions are now programmed to self-destruct!)

These are times for ending the planet.

All is primed for the last phase and all will go according to plan.

There can be no pulling back.

There is no time for delay. It will go on as planned with no interruptions. No one will believe it as the end until near the very end. As stated previously they will think it is only another phase of changes until the Big War arrives. The effects of the Nuclear War will be horrendous, and truly from the pain, fear and loss of hope for the future, the living will envy the dead. There will be no time for stability of any sort once the war begins or after it finishes, for the other mechanisms will simply take over.

Contamination of all things will occur and life will be virtually unbearable. People will then be seen at their worst. The charade will be over and there will be no need for them to pretend.

This Message will become known in all quarters one way or another.

It is well known in the other levels, and of course it is being blocked on purpose on this level so that people will not be aware of what is to happen.

If people were to know, they would be prepared faster and the action could commence even sooner.

All sorts of attacks will continue on True Beings to make them doubt and give up.

But they must be strong and continue at all costs.

There cannot be any wavering or stumbling now for this will upset them all the more.

Kerb the impatience, and take each day as it comes so that disappointments will not occur.

Timing in a sense is irrelevant.

Things will happen when they are meant to happen.

It is pointless worrying about precise timing.

No one of the Light is ever alone.

The changes in climate, accidents, increase in disasters, will continue for there is a job to be done.

Each incidence will place a little more strain on the planet and its resources so that eventually the major incidences can occur.

Remember that other levels of consciousness are also involved, and that they need clearing also.

They are going through their own process of clearing also.
